Dear Parents,

As we head into the long weekend I wanted to extend my thanks to everyone in our school community for the kindness and prayers offered for the Mackey family, the staff and the students that have been affected in many ways by this tragic loss.

It always seems that at the most difficult times we see “true community spirit and an emulation of the deep faith, we have, as a Catholic School community.”

- I am so proud and thankful for my staff who jumped on board to organize to support the school in an effort to afford others the opportunity to attend the funeral mass.*
- To my Catholic School Council, led by the ever-awesome Stephanie McMillan, who dropped everything and showed up over the lunch hour on Wednesday to support the staff and the kids – Thank you from the bottom of my heart.*
- To the PVNC teaching staff (retirees and others on Personal Leave) who called and let us know they would be there ~ Thank you!*
- To my Admin staff, Tammy and Paul, who “took over” and made sure everyone was cared for here ~ Thank you!*
- To all my beautiful staff who stood together yesterday, in support of Pat and his family; we are all stronger together ~ Merci!*
- And finally, to our beautiful Kate Brioux who lifted our heavy hearts to heaven in song and brought us comfort ~ Thank you!*

Leading a school is always a gift but at no time is that gift greater than in times of trouble, when we lean on our faith and we lean on one another.

God bless, Shelley Adair.
